Sub : Regarding rationalisation of polling station

Sir Madam,

I am directed to say that the rationalisation exercise undertaken by you has not been given effect to in the draft roll '11 as it was intended. The Commission may order to give effect to it immediately after final publication '11. Meanwhile if you feel that some change is absolutely necessary in the proposal already sent to this office in the form of CTR reports, you may resubmit the CTR reports as well as Annexure-III making the required changes. If the copies of the CTR reports required for making changes are not available with you, the CTR reports submitted to this end can be taken back. You may send your authorised representative to this office to receive back the reports. The modified CTR reports along with Annexure-III should be submitted within 30.11.2010. However, immediately we need to know about the ACs where such changes are required. For this purpose, report in the format given below may kindly be sent by email latest by 8.11.2010.

District:

No. & Name of ACs where change is required in CTR formats (Format for rationalisation proposal)	No. & Name of ACs where change is NOT required in CTR formats (Format for rationalisation proposal)

Changes in the rationalisation proposal should be discussed in the political party meeting and resolution of the meeting should be submitted along with the modified proposal.

In this context it may be borne in mind the rationalisation exercise would be given effect to immediately after final publication '11 only if Commission orders so. In case Commission does not issue such order, the forthcoming Assembly General Election will be held on the basis of existing polling area.

Yours faithfully,

SOMNATHI DE. OSD (JT)
